Prosecutor Leyton Charges Parents in Drowning Death of 1-Year Old Son

FLINT – Genesee County Prosecutor David Leyton has charged the parents of a 1-year-old boy with second degree murder and child abuse related to the infant's drowning death.

On Monday, May 20th, Flint Police were dispatched to Holly Avenue in the City of Flint in response to a report of a deceased one year old child. Upon their arrival, police observed the child's father administering CPR on his son who was then taken to Hurley Medical Center where he was pronounced dead.

Prosecutor Leyton has charged Callie Rose Cserca, 19 (d.o.b. 5-20-94) of Flint, and Jeremy Lewis Wise, 29 (d.o.b. 2-22-84) of Flint, with second degree murder and second degree child abuse related to the drowning death of their son, Aden Lewis Wise, d.o.b. 5-14-12.

According to reports from the police investigation, the child had been given a bath and was left unattended at some point in a bathtub full of water. The parents then discovered him face down in the water and authorities were called.

Cserca and Wise will be arraigned in 68th District Court and a pre-trial and preliminary examination dates will be scheduled.
