
From: alert.network@state.ma.us
Sent: Friday, October 25, 2019 11:02 AM
To: Todd Pilling
Subject: HHAN Alert - UNKNOWN - Sanofi Provides Update on Precautionary Voluntary Recall of Zantac OTC in U.S.

The following is an alert message from the Massachusetts Health and Homeland Alert Network:

Title: Sanofi Provides Update on Precautionary Voluntary Recall of Zantac OTC in U.S.
Group: NoGroups
Time Sent: 2019-10-25 11:01:50
Severity: Unknown
Sensitivity: This message does not contain sensitive information
Alert ID: fda_j6honpusa2dxbjmwdxgph08ko

Alert Message:

As a precautionary measure, Sanofi on Friday, October 18, initiated a voluntary recall of all Zantac OTC (over-the-counter) in the United States. This includes Zantac 150®, Zantac 150® Cool Mint, and Zantac 75®.

<http://www.fda.gov/safety/recalls-market-withdrawals-safety-alerts/sanofi-provides-update-precautionary-voluntary-recall-zantac-otc-us>

You have received this email because you have subscribed to a HHAN data stream. You can unsubscribe from the HHAN data stream at any time by emailing alert.network@state.ma.us. MDPH does not assume any liability for the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information, product, or process disclosed herein or provided in the hyperlinks. Using the hyperlink to continue to a non-MDPH website does not constitute an endorsement by MDPH or any of its employees of the information presented in the website, and you will be subject to the destination website privacy policies when you follow the link.