PROSECUTOR LEYTON ISSUES STATEMENT RELATED TO ALLEGATIONS AGAINST PRIEST AT HOLY FAMILY

FLINT – No criminal charges will be filed against a Grand Blanc priest, Genesee County Prosecutor David Leyton announced today.

“My office has reviewed the police investigation reports related to allegations of inappropriate behavior by a priest who is presently on leave from Holy Family Catholic Church. Based upon those reports, we do not find probable cause necessary to charge a crime related to the alleged actions of April 30, 2014. I am satisfied with the internal review and process being conducted by officials in the Catholic Diocese of Lansing related to this incident and believe the matter is being handled appropriately.”
