FLINT – Genesee County Prosecutor David Leyton has charged the mother of a two year old boy with murder in the toddler’s death.

Crystal Lashaun Shelton-Randolph, 23 (d.o.b. 1-24-90) of Flint, is charged with felony murder, child abuse-first degree, and criminal sexual conduct-first degree related to the death of her son, Jordan Shelton (d.o.b. 11-15-2011).

Around 4:30pm on November 22nd, paramedics were dispatched to Dunn Court in the City of Flint where they found a child unresponsive. He was transported to Hurley Medical Center where he was pronounced dead. Autopsy reports ruled the boy’s death a homicide from blunt force trauma to the head.

A preliminary examination will be scheduled in Flint’s 68th District Court next month.
