Genesee Township Man Charged with First Degree Child Abuse of 8-Month-Old Daughter

January 19, 2011

FLINT – Genesee County Prosecutor David Leyton has charged Corey Martin Yeager, 21 (d.o.b. 10/11/1989), with first degree child abuse related to an incident involving his 8-month-old daughter at their home on Bray Road in Genesee Township.

According to Genesee Township Police reports, on Sunday, January 16th, the baby was transported by ambulance to the hospital after exhibiting symptoms consistent with being shaken or jarred. The baby remains in critical care at the hospital.

Corey Yeager is expected to be arraigned today on the charge with a pre-trial hearing and preliminary examination to be scheduled in 67th District Court.
