

Primary Election Ballot Request Form

Primary elections are used by political parties to determine who will represent them on the ballot in the November election. Rules for primary elections are set by the political parties. Winners of the Primary Elections held on June 28, 2022, advance to the General Election where all eligible voters receive a ballot that includes all candidates for office, regardless of party affiliation.

The parties holding a Primary Election may not be determined until late April. View a list of current candidates at elections.utah.gov or sevierutah.net

You may also check or change your party affiliation online at www.vote.utah.gov

If you have any questions, please contact our office at 435-893-0401 or elections@sevier.utah.gov.

If you are changing political parties, this form must be returned by March 31, 2022
