Zoning Board of Appeals Openings We need you!

The City of Alpena currently has two openings on the Zoning Board of Appeals.

The ZBA is tasked with interpreting provisions of the Zoning Ordinance in a manner that carries out the intent of the code. Regular meetings typically consist of three types of cases: 1) interpreting the Zoning Ordinance; 2) hearing appeals from administrative decisions; or 3) considering variances from the Zoning Ordinance.

If you have talent, experience, or interest in construction, design, engineering, law, land use, or community planning, please consider applying for the Zoning Board of Appeals today.
