This highly anticipated free event, organized by Chamblee’s Public Arts Coordinator Teneisha Jones, is a celebration of creativity, community, and is open to everyone.

“We are so excited to have this event in a new location with a ton of great vendors and professional artists,” said Teneisha Jones, Chamblee’s Public Arts Coordinator. “Whether you are on a day-date or just trying to keep the kids busy, we will have something for everyone. Come hungry, thirsty, and ready to be wowed!”

Attendees will be wowed by professional chalk artists who will spend the day transforming the sidewalks of Chamblee City Hall into unbelievable works of art. The artist market will include more than 40 artist booths of fine art, pottery, sculptures, home décor, jewelry, clothing and more! While browsing through the artist booths, guests can take advantage of the City’s Open Container District by purchasing beer from Moondog Growlers and Sangrias from Mad Italian, lunch from the El Patron and Mad Italian food trucks, sweet treats from King of Pops, and cool off with an ice-cold drink from Shipped Coffee.
