Chamblee Closes Out Summer Concert Series with Star-Studded Performances

July 20, 2023 —The City of Chamblee is closing out its summer concert series with hits from some of your favorite rock and country artists. Celebrating 35 years of being an Atlanta-based, folk-rock band, Drivin' N' Cryin' is headlining the 2023 Chamblee Summer Concert Series Finale on Friday, August 4, at 6:30 PM at Chamblee City Hall (3518 Broad Street). The inductees to the Georgia Music Hall of Fame, Drivin' N' Cryin', has an arsenal of songs, a full tank of gas, and will close out the Chamblee Summer Concert Series with some help from Grammy-nominated, country singer Chuck Mead. B98.5's Tad Lemire will serve as the emcee for the evening.

Parking will be very limited and will be available at Winter Construction (5616 Peachtree Road). Utilizing rideshare options and using the rideshare park, located at 5374 Peachtree Road, are highly encouraged. To access the Uber rideshare code, visit <https://r.uber.com/rEVjNblARZ7>. Attendees are permitted to bring coolers; however, coolers must be smaller than 30 quarts and outside alcoholic beverages are prohibited. Golf carts and motorized vehicles (wheelchairs allowed) are not allowed on the premises. For a list of Frequently Asked Questions and for more information, visit www.chambleerocks.net.

According to the City's new Entertainment District, Alcohol purchased from any alcohol-licensed establishment located in the district must display the establishment's name or logo and a sticker designated from the City authorizing the drink for outdoor consumption in the Downtown Entertainment District. More information on the Open Container District can be found at www.chambleega.gov.

This is a series that family, friends and neighbors don't want to miss! Admission is free and food and beverage vendors will be available. Sponsorship opportunities for City events are available by contacting Chamblee's Special Events Coordinator Katie Sears at ksears@chambleega.gov.
