—FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—
11th ANNUAL TASTE OF CHAMBLEE RETURNS OCTOBER 6TH

August 29, 2018— Have you ever thought about eating your way through Chamblee in one afternoon? Impossible? Not at all with the 11th Annual Taste of Chamblee, which returns to downtown Chamblee on October 6, 2018, from 4:00 - 8:00 pm. This year's cuisines will range from Indian to Middle Eastern to Mexican and deep fried Southern and also will celebrate the diverse restaurant community in Chamblee. In addition to the amazing food, a family-friendly kid zone will entertain tykes of all ages.

This year's Taste of Chamblee is hosted by the City of Chamblee. "This is a significant event in the City of Chamblee. It showcases our diversity and brings our cultures together," said City Manager Jon Walker.

Admission to the event is free, but new this year: wristbands, which cost $16.99 and are pre-loaded with 15 Taste Points. Taste Points may be redeemed at participating restaurant booths for a wide selection of tastings that range from 1 - 5 points per sample. Top-Up stations will be available on-site to add additional Taste Points for $1 each. Wristbands will be available for purchase on event day, or can be purchased at <https://www.freshtix.com/events/2018-taste-of-chamblee>.

Giant LED TVs with the afternoon's hottest football games also will be onsite featuring the SEC and ACC games of the week.

Patrons are encouraged to take MARTA. The Gold Line runs to the Chamblee Station. Head north on Peachtree Road to enter the festival located at the corner of Peachtree Road and Broad Street. Shuttles also will run from the station. If driving, patrons also may park at MARTA's Chamblee lot or at Chamblee High School, where shuttles also will run.
