

PARKS AND RECREATION COMMISSION

Hybrid Meeting 311 S. Main St. City Council Chambers

Tuesday, May 3, 2022, 9:00 am

PRESENT: Shawn Personke, Pat Muldoon, Erin Brayton, Sharon Castle, Sam Angus, Andrew Thompson, Kate Mehuron (City Council liaison)

1. Approval of Agenda. Angus- Motion to amend the agenda: add Freer Trinkle update. Personke-second. Approve- Unanimous.
2. Approval of April Minutes. Thompson-Motion to approve; Angus-second. Approve-Unanimous.
3. Call to Public: No comments.
4. Old Business
 - a. Main Street Park update: MSPA board member T. Higgins' spoke in the public comment part of City Council, announcing that $2 million is pledged, aiming at a goal of $5 million.
 - b. Community Center Task Force update: Angus spoke about the dual distribution of the survey that is posted: one for kids; one for adults. A draft of the community partner survey is in process. The Task Force is also discussing fundraising, programming, and potential locations.
 - c. Rec It Tuesday update (6-8:30 pm; 5:30 set up): Angus announced that the Knockerball event is paid for and set up. Angus will be there, asking for other commissioners to be there to help. Discussion: other parallel activities during the event.
 - d. Park Clean Up Day: Thompson stated this is up to City staff and typical activities include parks clean up, painting. Personke proposed a May Clean Up Day on May 14, 9:00 am. This date will be directed to Laura and Kate.
 - e. Freer-Trinkle property update: no update
5. New Business
 - a. 2022-23 Budget Planning Discussion/Decisions. Mehuron reported the Parks and Recreation budget recommendations are included in current and upcoming City Council budget sessions.
 - b. Mehuron gave an update on the City Council search for City Manager: in progress.
6. Commissioner reports. Mehuron updated that the Community Director position is in transition.
7. Next meeting: June 7, 9:00am
8. Adjournment Brayton- Motion to adjourn. Angus-second. Approval: Unanimous.