Repository Bid through the Mail

*Dauphin County residents are not permitted to bid through the mail.

If you are not a resident of Dauphin County and cannot bring a Repository Bid in person to the Dauphin County Tax Claim Bureau, below are the extra steps which are required.

- The bid form must be mailed to our office along with a photo copy of your driver’s license.
- A notarized document must also be submitted which verifies your driver’s license.
- A statement from your home county must be submitted stating you owe no delinquent taxes on properties owned in that county. If you own no property in the county in which you reside we will need an affidavit stating as such.
- Please follow the remaining steps in the bid process as indicated online.
