4. New Business

Mark McDermott: We should reach out to the BOF. Looking at age for deferral program, lowering that. And the appeals process currently the tax assessor takes appeals but if you look at the BOA appeals, if you appeal your taxes you shouldn't be going to the tax collector, a process outside of that, decided on BOS but the BOAA might be something that we should add to their purvue since it is a tax-related item

The deferral program does not have an effect on the budget, deferring a percentage of taxes for number of years with interest, the money gets collected when house is sold so not sure where the BOF fits in, as far as the appeal process might not be under their purvue.

Rep Pistilli: What we are doing for veterans?
