

TAX EXEMPTION ON CERTAIN SPECIALLY EQUIPPED VEHICLES

As pursuant to section 12-81c of the Connecticut General Statutes and adopted by the local ordinance as approved by the Town Of Fairfield: Allows a municipality, by local ordinance, to exempt ambulance-type vehicles that are used exclusively to transport medically incapacitated individuals for no charge and a local option exemption for any property owned by a nonprofit ambulance company. Beginning with the 1998 assessment year, this local-option exemption provision can apply to retrofitted vehicles (i.e., those changed after their manufacture) that accommodate the owner's disability. Beginning with the 2000 assessment year, this local-option exemption provision may be offered for a new or retrofitted vehicle that accommodates a disability of the owner's (i.e., parent or guardian) child.
