Hal Schwartz called to order the organizational meeting of the RTM Redistricting Committee at 7:10pm on January 11, 2022 on WebEx.

II. Roll call

Moderator McDermott conducted a roll call. The following persons were present: Pamela Iacono, District 8, Karen McCormack, District 2, Hal Schwartz, District 2, Karen Wackerman, District 7.

III. Agenda

1) Elect Officers

- Motion to appoint Hal Schwartz Chairman, moved by Representative Iacono, seconded by Representative Wackerman, motion passed unanimously

Representative Schwartz took over the meeting.

- Motion to appoint Pamela Iacono Secretary, moved by Representative Wackerman, seconded by Representative McCormack, motion passed unanimously

2) Set Meeting Dates

- The committee agreed to notice the next meeting for February 8th at 7pm. Due to issues surrounding ongoing Covid protocols and the committee's desire to work in person, where practicable, a determination as to location will be made closer to the meeting.

Action Items:

To have the Registrars appear at the next meeting to discuss the set-up for polling locations

To have the Registrars send the committee the 2015 Redistricting Presentation ASAP

To have the Registrars send the committee the 2022 Redistricting Presentation when available

Of Record:

Representative Iacono stated that she spoke with Liz Zezima, District 4, Chairman of the RTM Special Legislative Committee to request that the SLMC meet to discuss a revision to the Committee Charge which would reflect the statutory deadline of March 2023 to file a redistricting plan with the State, instead of the 2022 primary deadline. Representative Zezima instructed her to discuss her concerns with the Redistricting Committee, as such, Rep. Iacono, communicated her concerns for record.

Jill Vergara, District 7, gave public comment recommending sticking to the primary deadline schedule.

IV. Adjournment

Hal Schwartz Schwartz adjourned the meeting at 7:40pm.
