

Harbor Management Commission Mooring Committee

November 8, 2022

The Harbor Management Commission's Mooring Committee met at Sullivan Independence Hall on November 8, 2022 at 5:30 p.m. Attending: Kim Taylor, Jac Herschler, Jeff Warren, and Harbor Master Bryan LeClerc. Geoff Steadman and Bill Perugini were absent.

Harbor Master Bryan LeClerc reported that not all boats have departed the harbor for the season, but all are expected to be gone by the November 15 deadline. He also reported that he recently participated in an online training seminar conducted by Online Mooring. This program confirmed for him that he has developed a solid understanding of the Online Mooring administrative system.

The committee confirmed there is one priority waiting list application at this time that was submitted by a Harbor Road waterfront homeowner. There are presently no known vacant moorings for the coming boating season,.

The committee discussed readiness for the upcoming waiting list and permit annual renewal process. No concerns with the renewal process are anticipated. The 2023 boating season will be the fourth year the Town of Fairfield has used the Online Mooring system to administer moorings in the harbor,

The meeting was adjourned at 6:05 p.m.
