

The Bicentennial Committee will hold a Volunteer Meeting on Thursday, March 24th, 2022 at 5:00pm in the Village Depot Meeting Room at the Hooksett Public Library (31 Mt. St. Mary's Way). This volunteer meeting is for anyone who is interested in volunteering at any Bicentennial events throughout 2022.

Following the meeting will be a historical presentation called "Rising Water – Hooksett and the Flood of 1936." This event is presented by the Historical Society.

If you have any questions, input, or perspective, please contact the office of the Town Council (603-485-8472, ext. 1).
