Continuing business-

The committee discussed the shape and scope of a draft local law to create a City-wide special district for sidewalk repair and upkeep. Discussion also included the shape of a draft local law defining the responsibilities of landowners under the framework of the special district.

The committee discussed the first draft of a proposed law for regulating short-term rentals (STRs) in the City of Hudson. The use of a moratorium on new STRs was discussed to allow for a period of time for the Committee to work on a draft bill.
