Huntington Beach Police Department Responds to a Shooting Investigation

On Sunday, March 16, 2025, at approximately 8:50 p.m., officers from the Huntington Beach Police Department (HBPD) responded to reports of a shooting near the intersection of Mandrell Drive and Koledo Lane.

Upon arrival, officers discovered two adult male victims suffering from gunshot wounds. Both individuals were transported to local hospitals for medical treatment, and their injuries are considered non-life-threatening.

Detectives from the HBPD Major Crimes Unit and Special Investigations Bureau responded to the scene and assumed control of the investigation. One suspect, 27-year-old Raul Bustillos of Huntington Beach, has been arrested. The incident is believed to be gang-related, and detectives are actively investigating the possibility of additional suspects who remain outstanding.

Currently, there is no ongoing threat to the public or community. The investigation continues, and no further details are available at this time.

Anyone with information related to this incident is asked to call Detective Isai Rodriguez at (714) 536-5970. To remain anonymous, please contact the OC Crime Stoppers at (855) TIP-OCCS (855-847-6227).
