Reports

K. Richards stated that MADL is partnering with Grand Valley State University’s Innovation Hub near downtown Muskegon. MADL will teach workshops regarding available electronic services.

The student library card project is progressing, and branch employees are helping fulfill this significant task. K. Richards meets soon with the Muskegon Heights superintendent to discuss the library card process.

A. Susalla shared that staff stamped 1,100 letters today for mailing. He believes MADL will create more library cards through this project than the branches process in a year. J. Hodges expressed her excitement regarding this news.
M. Johnson answered D. Hughes’ question regarding patron incidents at the Muskegon Heights library.

Old Business

K. Wisniewski stated that MADL branches received new RFID pads and scanners. These scanners can read a library card on a cellphone in place of a physical card.

K. Blackledge announced that the three Storyville sites had approximately 350 visitors during opening week (starting January 13). By week’s end, people were visiting the Norton Shores branch specifically for Storyville.

D. Hughes discussed visiting the Norton Shores and Muskegon Heights locations and expressed excitement seeing Storyville come to fruition after years of planning. He thanked the donors who made it possible. J. Hodges added she has also received positive Storyville feedback.

K. Richards announced the Storyville Grand Opening will be March 26, with more details to follow.

Regarding the Bookmobile, K. Wisniewski stated the interior materials such as flooring, cabinets, and shelves have been selected. The chassis has been ordered (estimated completion of 3 months), and the furniture will begin to be manufactured.

K. Richards reported that an RFP for the Muskegon Township branch’s relocation has been posted effective today. The invitation is open to library design and design-build firms for architectural, engineering, construction, and project management and will close on February 28, 2020.
