Discuss City Manager Position Profile with MML Recruiter

Glenn Anderson, Michigan Municipal League Recruiter, gave a brief presentation on his personal background; career in local government; recruitments to-date with the League; and reviewed the City Manager search process.

City Councilmembers discussed recruitment profile for the City Manager position to be used in preparing a brochure for applicants that includes a Candidate Profile and Community Profile; discussed the Candidate Profile which will detail the qualifications, experience and professional characteristics required for the position; and discussed the Community Profile which will provide a description of the position, the organization and the Petoskey community.

Mr. Anderson reviewed that he will prepare a draft brochure for City Councilmembers to review and reviewed timeline of advertisement and interviews.

There being no further business to come before the City Council, this November 15, 2021, special meeting adjourned at 6:55 P.M.

John Murphy, Mayor

Alan Terry, Clerk-Treasurer
