

Pullman Police Department Feedback Form

Your feedback is important to us.

The City of Pullman, as an organization, strives to perform its services to the community in the best manner possible. Accountability is important to us. Whether your feedback involves a compliment or commendation, inquiry, request for clarification, complaint or allegation, we want to know how we are doing and identify areas for improvement. While written feedback is preferred, you may also provide us with feedback by calling or visiting in person with the appropriate city official.

If your feedback is positive, we will make sure that the appropriate individual(s) receive positive reinforcement. If your feedback is negative, we assure you that your complaint will be investigated and resolved, we hope, to your satisfaction.
