Search Warrant Served in Case of Missing Child

Members of the Pullman Police Department, Moscow (Idaho) Police Department, Idaho State Police, Latah County Sheriff's Office, and Federal Bureau of Investigations (F.B.I.) were present as a search warrant was served on Aaron Aung's family home in Moscow, ID this morning.

The warrant, which authorized the search of the family's residence, vehicles, and persons, was executed as a means to collect evidence and information related to the disappearance of Aaron Aung and his 2-year old daughter, Seraya Aung Harmon. Seraya was scheduled to be returned to her mother's custody in Pullman on June 3, 2024.

Aaron Aung may be traveling with 21-year-old Nadia Cole, formally a Pullman resident, who was reported missing to the Port of Seattle Police Department, after failing to board a flight with her family.

Local agencies continue to work tirelessly in an attempt to locate young Seraya. Anyone with information about this case is asked to call the Pullman Police Department or their local law enforcement agency.

Anyone with information should contact the Pullman Police Department at PoliceTips@pullman-wa.gov or the FBI at 1-800-CALL-FBI (225-5324) or tips.fbi.gov.
