PARKS

Blixseth Mountain Park

71-251 Mirage Road

Entrance to this park is marked by signage on Mirage Road. Follow signage down the driveway behind Rancho Mirage Elementary School to pedestrian bridge leading to park.

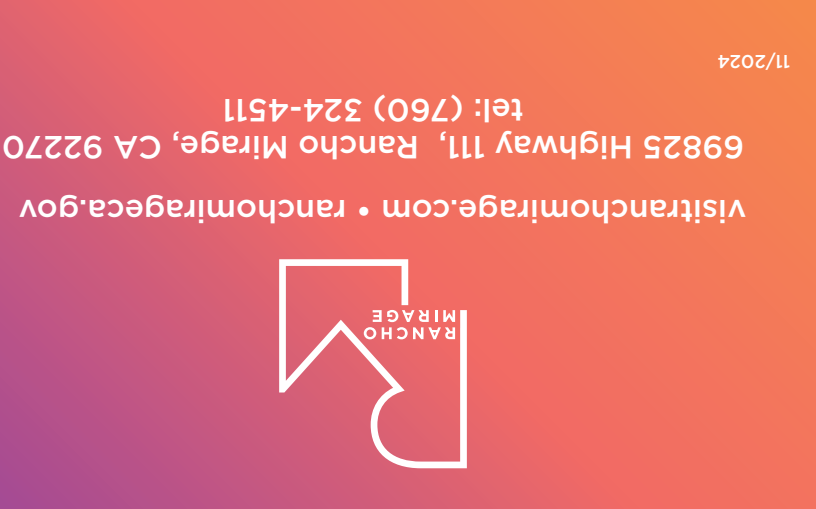

This nature park features native desert landscaping, walking paths, and benches for observing the desert and mountain vistas. Considered a place to experience the natural beauty of the desert, this park offers visitors the opportunity for quiet solitude and closeness to nature not found in other parks.

Michael S. Wolfson Park

70-001 Frank Sinatra Drive

Located at Da Vall Drive and Frank Sinatra Drive, adjacent to the Butler-Abrams trail system and the Whitewater Storm Channel. This park has a Victorian theme that features a fountain, decorative lighting fixtures, picturesque picnic area with tables, benches, scenic walking paths, a parking lot with the capacity to accommodate up to 20 vehicles and two Level II EV charging stations. Upon entering the park, visitors can play a recorded "welcome" message from Frank Sinatra, who lived nearby. The park was built in honor of former City Council Member Michael S. Wolfson, who served on the City Council from 1978 to 1986.

Rancho Mirage Community Park

71-560 San Jacinto Drive

Located on San Jacinto Drive just west of Indian Trail Road, Rancho Mirage Community Park has something for everyone. Amenities include: a shaded children's play area equipped with climbing structures, exercise stations along a walking path, and pickleball, tennis, and basketball courts. Rancho Mirage Community Park is home to the Rancho Mirage Amphitheater, which hosts an array of community events throughout the year. The amphitheater offers terrace seating to accommodate 1,000 guests, a dramatically covered platform stage, and decorative perimeter fencing.

Rancho Mirage Dog Park

34-100 Key Largo Avenue

Located on the corner of Key Largo Avenue and Via Vail.

Rancho Mirage Dog Park offers separate gated grass areas for large and small dogs. The park is enclosed with decorative perimeter fencing and double latching gates. Just over four laps around the lighted exterior walkway measures one mile. Shaded areas with seating are also provided.

Richard & Annette Bloch Cancer Survivors Park

69-825 Highway 111

Located on Highway 111 adjacent to City Hall.

This beautiful park features a pyramid kiosk, tiled benches, a hillside waterfall with a pond, and sculptures. The sculpture garden was designed as a celebration of life and to provide encouragement to current cancer patients. One of 22 such parks in the nation, this park was constructed by the Bloch Foundation as a gift to the community.
