

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

The recent immigration enforcement actions in Los Angeles have caused fear, disruption, and heartbreak for many families.

The City of Carson is built on diversity, resilience, and compassion. No family should live in fear, and no community should be torn apart. When we stand together and care for one another, we become stronger than ever.

As a city, we remain steadfast in promoting and upholding the values that make Carson a community inclusive for all.