- Permit retailers that do not sell necessary supplies to reopen for curbside pick-up and for delivery.
- Lift the “closed areas” (e.g., garden centers) and advertising restrictions on large stores.
- Allow bike repair shops to reopen.

THE ORDER WILL ALSO EASE UP ON SOME RESTRICTIONS ON MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC. IT WILL, FOR EXAMPLE:

- Allow motorized boating and golf, consistent with sound social distancing. No golf carts allowed.
- It will permit individuals to travel between their residences, though such travel during the epidemic is strongly discouraged.
- And it will clarify that state parks remain open, as they have been throughout the emergency.

- And it will also require employers to provide at least cloth face coverings to their employees. No one should be afraid to go to work.
