CITY OF STOCKTON TO HOST STOCKTON POLICE CHIEF TOWN HALL Community Opportunity to Meet and Hear from Finalist Candidates

STOCKTON, Calif. – On Wednesday, April 20, 2022, at 5:30 p.m., the City of Stockton will host a Town Hall Meeting with the finalist candidates for Stockton’s next Chief of Police. The Stockton Police Chief Candidate Town Hall will be held at the Bob Hope Theatre, 242 E. Main St. All members of the community are welcome and encouraged to attend.

The City of Stockton has engaged in a nationwide search, following the December 2021 retirement of Chief Eric Jones, who held the position for nearly a decade as Stockton’s forty-ninth police chief.

“We are extremely grateful to Interim Chief James Chraska, who has led the department while the City conducts a thorough and robust search and interview process,” said City Manager Harry Black. “Stockton has been fortunate to have a police department that is recognized for its excellence in leadership and an Interim Chief that has provided continuity during the transition.”

Additional information about the finalist candidates will be available the week before the Town Hall. Please call (209) 937-8827 or email Connie.Cochran@stocktonca.gov for additional information.
