Stockton Arts Commission to Host First Art Exhibit – March 12th

STOCKTON, Calif. – The City of Stockton Arts Commission (SAC) will host its first art exhibit, as the first in a series of events known as the Stockton Art Nights. Stockton Art Nights will be held quarterly, with the inaugural event on Tuesday, March 12, 2024. The Stockton Art Nights will be held exclusively at the Civic Auditorium 525 N. Center St, Stockton, from 4:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Art Night events are free, open to the entire community, and offer an exciting opportunity for a variety of local artists and performers, including the City of Stockton Poet Laureate Jazmarie Latour, to share their work with the community and visitors to Stockton.

There will be four Stockton Art Nights throughout the year, held every three months. Follow us on social media and watch for announcements on our website for future events and artists.
