Comments and feedback received from these efforts will help the City update the Development Code, Design Standards, Housing Element, and new Housing and Neighborhood Action Plans. Updates have been made to the Shape Stockton website and workshop. These include public drafts of the Housing Element, Housing Action Plan (HAP), Neighborhood Action Plans, and supportive studies and meeting materials for all Shape Stockton efforts.

A Spanish-language interpreter will be available. If information is needed in languages other than English and Spanish, or in an alternative format, please call (209) 937-7220 at least five days in advance. Advance notification will enable the City to make reasonable arrangements and accessibility.

Additional information is available at www.stocktonca.gov/ShapeStockton. Community members are encouraged to contact the City with questions or to provide suggestions and ideas. Please email ShapeStockton@Stocktonca.gov or call (209) 937-7220.
