OFFICE OF VIOLENCE PREVENTION DATA AND CAFE EVENT Presentation at Dorothy L. Jones/CUFF Family Resource Center

STOCKTON, Calif. – The City of Stockton's Office of Violence Prevention (OVP) invites the community to learn about its impactful efforts towards reducing violent crime. Join us for the Data Café event on Wednesday, March 20, at 2:30 PM, at the Community Partnership for Families (CPFSJ): Dorothy L. Jones/CUFF Family Resource Center, 2044 Fair St., Stockton, CA 95206. This public presentation will showcase the positive outcomes of our programs through actual data statistics. The session is open to all who are interested in understanding and contributing to violence reduction efforts in our community.

"Data Café is set to be an enlightening event, aiming to keep the community informed about the proactive steps the Office of Violence Prevention is taking to mitigate violence in Stockton," said OVP Director Lora Larsen. "By sharing our strategies and successes, we hope to support more individuals who are at risk as they pursue better futures for themselves, their families, and our community as a whole."

For more information, please call the Office of Violence Prevention at 209-937-8880, visit www.stocktonca.gov/OVP or email ovp@stocktonca.gov.
