Any material that does not meet the above requirements will be charged the current rate for trash along with applicable surcharges. Same size requirement for Topsoil, no liquids/mud/trash. Sorted Construction & Demolition (C&D): Sorted C&D loads require recyclable materials to be separated prior to disposal. Materials may be segregated within the trailer or load; however, clean dimensional lumber, metal, cardboard, clean pallets, and clean concrete must be removed and placed in the designated on-site diversion areas. Once these materials are separated, any remaining non-recyclable debris may be disposed of as Sorted C&D. Loads that do not contain any recyclable or divertible materials also qualify as Sorted C&D. Qualifying loads receive reduced disposal rates based on the specific divertible materials diverted from the landfill.

Unsorted Construction & Demolition (C&D): Unsorted C&D loads contain a mixed combination of materials—including, but not limited to, drywall, wood, metal, cardboard, concrete, asphalt, plastics, pallets, and trash—that are comingled and not separated for diversion. Loads that arrive unsegregated, or that contain divertible materials disposed of together without separation on site, are classified as Unsorted C&D and are charged at a higher disposal rate.

Concrete: Contains no rebar, no mesh or backing, no manufactured stone or bricks. Maximum size 3x3 slab, anything above that size, landfilled at current C&D trash rate.
