Williston Square Master Plan

This nearly 800-acre redevelopment is on the site of the former Sloulin Field International Airport in Williston, North Dakota. The Master Plan includes expansive commercial, office, and tech business spaces, diverse residential options, and recreational amenities – including a public civic center park.

The plan envisions pedestrian-oriented development and encourages a sense of community and place for retail; medical; grocery; commercial; office; restaurant; and single-family, medium-density, and multi-family residential.

Prime Location

With convenient access to Highway 2, existing restaurants and stores, the Williston Municipal Golf Course, parks, and established residential neighborhoods, Williston Square is the perfect location for your next project.
